19-22 APRIL

APS2026

INTERNATIONAL KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Professor Yves De Koninck

Yves De Koninck is Professor of Psychiatry and Neuroscience at Université Laval and Director of the CERVO Brain Research Centre in Quebec, Canada.

His award-winning pioneering work uncovered spinal chloride dysregulation as a substrate of chronic pain, which launched the quest for chloride regulators as novel non-opioid analgesics.

Professor Annina Schmid

Annina Schmid is Professor of Pain Neurosciences and a Specialist Musculoskeletal Physiotherapist at the Nuffield Department of Clinical Neurosciences at Oxford University, UK.

She leads the Neuromusculoskeletal Health and Science Lab which uses a translational and interdisciplinary approach to study the pathophysiology of neuromusculoskeletal conditions with the ultimate goal to improve management for patients.
